So what documentation is required for me to take possession on my dies I truly was under the impression that I owned the dies.... I do feel at the 400.00 usd each I already paid was my price ... other mints had no charge to make up the dieswhen news of the bankruptcy surfaced there was discussion on how and when I could get possession of the dies seeing as my dies are unique to my silver bars they are only good for me and I hold the copyright of any bars produced if any one else produces one silver bar using my dies .. then my attorney will be my next step.... I was truly shocked to hear the 300.00 price per die and if that's going to be how you are moving forward ... then I think I need that appointment with my lawyer don't forget all my business and money paid transpired after nwtm declared bankruptcy ...so the trustee is well aware of the business I had with NWTM and was kept in the dark about the bankruptcy until 2 months after

Dear Tim,

I am reaching out to correct an error in our last email communication to you. In it, we erroneously stated that the “court has determined that NWTMINT retained ownership of all NWTM dies.” This statement was incorrect. The court has made no determination as to the ownership of NWTM dies. Per the previous written notice that you received, it is the Trustee’s belief that with limited exceptions, NWTM retained ownership of all NWTM Dies created to produce coins, medallions, or other products for customers. The Trustee has received numerous communications from customers that believe that they own dies. To date, the court has made no determinations or rulings as to ownership of any NWTMINT dies. The court has authorized the trustee to settle disputed claims of ownership, but has not approved a settlement amount. At the current time, the Trustee is willing to settle claims of ownership for $300/die, an amount that is subject to negotiation. If documentation exists that establishes that a customer owns a die, the Trustee will return that die to the customer for cost of shipping.

We apologize for any confusion which our email caused.

Hello, Jenifer -

After contacting several people within the University, nobody can seem to locate an invoice or other communication from what was probably 10-12 years ago. At that time they didn't really keep electronic copies of things and if there was still record of an invoice it is "probably in some box in a basement or attic somewhere around the university."

Do you have any records at all of having worked with Seattle University's Joe Phillips in the Albers College of Business and Economics? I hear that he may have been the one who placed the original order.

Or, perhaps this isn't the medal that was ordered through your company. Perhaps the medallion that we use is from a different company and perhaps the die you have isn't for the same medallion we are thinking it is from?

Any leads/thoughts you may have would be great - thank you!
Christa

Hi Jenifer -

Thanks so much for your quick reply.

Attached is a photo of the medal - I am still trying to locate invoices. There has been quite a bit of turn over in the past years!

I am uncertain as to when the medals may have been purchased. Perhaps in the range of 2007-08 looking at some of the medals.

I look forward to hearing from you.

comment: Hello, It has been some time since we have used the die for medallions and the history of the orders and people ordering has been lost. I am working to see if we can find proof of ownership either through an old invoice or communication of some type. It is a medallion for Seattle University, ordered through the University Advancement Office years ago for presentation to our endowed chairs. It is a die of our University Seal. We had thought it lost because we couldn't find who had cast the die and made the medals and were going to have to discontinue the use of the medals. Thanks so much for any information you can provide.

comment: I am writing in conjunction with Father John Hotze of the Father Kapaun Guild seeking a die that we had made in honor of Father Emil Kapaun, a priest and Army Chaplain. The Father Kapaun Guild seeks to carry on his legacy by sharing his heroic story, maintaining a museum in his honor and pursuing his cause for Canonization within the Catholic Church. The most current die number is H 3 50 and H 3 51 (The originals appear to have been DK06141301 and DK06141302 if I am reading correctly). We have several orders for coins made from the die, but unfortunately our accounting department did not have a copy of the original one when the die was made in 2011. We plan to keep producing the coins. Scott Carter

Subject: Forest Service dies-Minerals and Geology

Jenifer,

I spoke with Mr. Mark Calvert this afternoon about dies used by NWTM for the Forest Service, and how I may recover them. Mr. Calvert and I agreed that a sum of three-hundred dollars ($300) will cover the costs of shipping those dies to me at [Brad Campbell; Forest Service, GPIO; 2164 SE Spalding Ave.; Grants Pass, OR 97526] as below.

I explained to Mr. Calvert that the $300 payment would be addressed through Barbara Johnson, listed on this email. Please contact Barbara Johnson for payment. Her phone numbers are: (541) 592-4002 (office), or (541) 589-2142 (cell); email: barbarajohnson@fs.fed.us

If you have any questions, or need additional information, please contact me. Mr. Calvert and Ms. Lentz were both very helpful with this process, which was complicated due to retirements in our agency among other factors. All involved have been helpful and a pleasure to work with in resolving this issue. Thank you-

Mr. Gearin,

As a follow-up to our conversation last week, attached please find documentation evidencing the U.S. District Court, Central District of CA's written documentation of its claim to the Dies. Please note that this documentation was not previously submitted with the online form and applies only to the U.S. District Court. To clarify, the prior documentation I submitted with the online claim on June 21, 2018 only pertains to the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. This email is intended to supplement the online claim of the U.S. District Court to provide more accurate documentation in support of its claim only.

Further, the U.S. District Court and the U.S. Bankruptcy Court conducted business with the debtor through invoices, purchase orders, sales order acknowledgements and related correspondence.

The Courts desire to retain possession of their Dies. I hope that we can reach an informal resolution to accomplish this result.

I look forward to hearing from you,

Elan Levey

Good morning, Jenifer;

My name is Sean Isaacs, and I believe you have been corresponding with my colleague, Bruce McCaffery, to whom you kindly arranged for the return of a pair of our dies.

Bruce is currently overseas, however I thought it pressing to contact you directly concerning the shipment in question which was retrieved by myself yesterday.

While the package did indeed contain our own Alliance Coin & Banknote die (thank you!), I discovered that an entirely unrelated die was sent to Bruce in error, rather than his correct "C2C" die as anticipated.

It is possible to have a second pass at trying to locate his die?

Thank you in advance for any possible advice on this.

Jenifer, Mr. Neu said I could speak directly with you as we try and coordinate the location and shipment of our clients dies and associated works. We don't really know what all is available still on sculpts, galvanos, and where the sample strikes are. I know you are somewhat overwhelmed so please let me know the best way for us to coordinate. We still have one client, Heidi Wastweet, who is fairly close and willing to drive to Dayton to help, especially if there are a number of the bigger items that would be very expensive to ship. Also, we would be willing to pay Cathy Swinburg for a day to help you just work on locating our client's items. Please let me know the best way.
